Hi Arley,

Originally, I told him Mike Galvin might be the best person to interview but since you are the Communications Director perhaps it should be you?

Let me know how you want me to respond or if you want to respond.

Best regards,

Hi Lorena,

Good talking to you just now. As I mentioned, I'm the producer of KCRW's Design and Architecture, a weekly show hosted by Frances Anderton. We are working on a show about waterfront development. We have reporters from Santa Barbara and San Diego that have produced segments for us, and I'd like to arrange a couple interviews for our host to record in San Pedro sometime in the next few days. We'd want someone to provide an overview of the San Pedro Public Market and explain how the area will look different. Ideally that person will have some history in San Pedro and can reflect personally on the changes. Or we can find a second person to do that. You suggested Michael Galvin, can you connect us? Would it make sense to talk to someone from the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce? And if you happen to know someone with a rich sense of history of the area, that'd be great as well.

Thanks so much,
Avishay
